DAY 2 : MONDAY

Visit to Rabat, salé and Meknes city
Distance 303 km | Duration 3h 42m

Night at the hotel
Palais Medina & SPA 5 * Fes

After shaharit and a delicious breakfast, direction to Rabat (97 km | 1h 18min)

The coastal capital of Morocco since 1912, Rabat, a bustling cultural epicenter. This modern and unspoiled city is full of fascinating historical sites.

Your day begins with a visit to the Oudayas: a 12th century kasbah named Al Mahdia in reference to the first chief Al Mahdi Ben Tumurt. This kasbah was originally a military fort, but in 2012 it was listed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Next, explore the ancient ramparts of the old medina with its narrow streets and colorful courtyards which is home to a few Jewish families. Then visit the royal palace, the parliament, the modern city, the Hassan tower, the mausoleum and the Rabbi Shalom Zaoui synagogue & the old city of Rabat.

After arriving to Salé city (birthplace of Rabbi Hayyim Ben Moses Attar, a famous 18th century scholar and cabbalist known in the Jewish world for his Bible commentary titled ohr hahayyim) visit to the Jewish cemetery in Salé, where Ohr. Hahayyim's father and grandfather are buried as well as Rabbi Raphael Encaoua: former Grand Rabbi of Morocco, who wrote famous books as Sefer Sh. U-t. Karne re'em. Lunch break (lunch box) and direction Meknes (152 km | 1 h 48 min).

Meknes, one of the Moroccan imperial cities, nicknamed "Moroccan Jerusalem": stop in front of the majestic BAB MANSOUR, then "BAB LKHMIS" built in the 17th century and visit of the Jewish Mellah, with its narrow streets and colorful courtyards, then direction Fez (65 km | 54 min).
